No.

Sir,

I have the honor to State that Ramiengar, a Pariharak of the Sri Kodanda Ramaswamy Temple at Hiremagalu in the Chikmagalur Taluk, absented himself from duty without leave about 5 years ago. During his absence one Channaiengar was temporarily appointed as Pariharak in his stead.

2. On the 2nd April 1906 the temporary incumbent fell ill and applied for a months leave. The permanent incumbent Ramiengar having by that time returned, was reinstated.

3. On the 17 November 1906 Ramiengar resigned his post and Channiengar was again appointed in his stead temporarily. Channiengar has been reported by the Amildar to be discharging his duties satisfactorily since then. He is a permanent resident of Hiremagalu unlike Ramiengar who is a native of Hulgundi in the Hassan District.

4 I therefore request that he may be Confirmed as Pariharak.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant,

M Lakshmanadas
